

GROCERIES

MEATS

WARNER'S

OPPO, POST OFFICE

PAW PAW, MICHIGAN

Easter Table Supplies

Our Easter Specialties:
Strawberries, Asparagus, Head and Leaf Lettuce, Cucumbers, Celery, Green Onions, Radishes,

Plenty of Chickens.
Armour Star, Swift's Premium Hams.

SATURDAY ONLY!

Stewing Beef per pound 11c
 Ribs of Beef per pound 11c
 10 bars Lucky Boy's soap 25c
 10 bars Magic Washer soap 25c

GROCERIES

MEAT SHOP

WARNER'S

OPPO, POST OFFICE

PAW PAW, MICHIGAN

C. F. SNOW.

Claude Says: Do You Want

A One Burner,
 A Two Burner,
 A Three Burner,
 Or a Four burner
OIL STOVE

In a high burner or low burner. You need not tell us the kind for we know what you will say

The Perfection

The kind that all my neighbors have

You are right! Absolutely the most perfect oil stove being sold to-day. Now serving two million homes.

Why not get the Best
 AT THE

Yellow Front

WE WANT TO SHOW YOU.

First National Bank

Member Federal Reserve Bank

PAW PAW, MICH.

4 per cent Paid on Time Deposits.

MICHIGAN NEWS ITEMS IN BRIEF

Paragraphs of interest to Wolverine State Readers.

News of All Kinds Gathered From Various Points in the State and So Reduced in Size That It Will Appeal to All Classes of Readers.

Michigan has a check from the Pere Marquette railroad for $525,000 in payment of state taxes.

After over 45 years in business in Manistee, James Henderson has retired on account of ill health.

Thrown from his rapidly moving motorcycle, George Durkee, of Jackson suffered a fractured skull.

A woman tramp startled Hillsdale people by taking up her headquarters on railroad property near the western city limits.

About 90 chicks burned when a brooder building at the chicken ranch of Harm Vos, east of Grandville, was destroyed by fire.

Geo. Klecker, aged 92, one of Livingston county's pioneers, died at the home of his son, Charles, on the latter's farm near Oak Grove village.

John Dykema, Grand Rapids, about 2 o'clock in the morning sat up in bed, awakened his wife, then dropped back dead. Heart disease was the cause.

Governor Ferris announces that he has appointed Hugh N. Nichols county agent for Shiawassee and George N. Deady as county agent for Huron.

A blaze at Grand Rapids did about $50,000 damage to the Woolworth Five and Ten Cent store, United Cigar store and Dick Brink Clothing company.

Mrs. Clara Frisbie, of Chelsea, seventy years of age, an inmate of the old people's home, committed suicide by hanging herself to the bedpost in her room.

Returns of Mackinac county show that the $75,000 bond issue for good roads was carried by a large majority. This makes a total issue of $175,000 for good roads.

Watts S. Humphrey, of Saginaw and seventy-two years of age, Michigan lawyer widely known, for years head of the state bar association, is dead of arterial sclerosis.

Arrangements for organizing the entire state county by county between now and September 1 were made at a meeting of the executive committee of the Michigan Anti-Saloon league.

Marquette may lose its unit of the naval brigade. The term of enlistment has expired and many of the members have moved away from Marquette, making it doubtful if the division can be reorganized to its needed strength.

The coroner's jury on the shooting at the Manley farm near Mendon, in which B. F. Manley, Richard Chalney, James H. Chalney and W. H. Marshall were the principals, and Richard Chalney was killed, brought in a verdict of wilful murder.

Mrs. M. D. Olds and her three daughters, Florence, Blanche and Gertrude, of Cheboygan, Mich., were among the passengers picked up from lifeboats by the British destroyer when the Japanese steamship Chiyo Maru grounded off Hong Kong.

An attempt was made at Battle Creek to wreck the eastbound Pullman train on the Michigan Central, due in Battle Creek at 9:25 p. m., by piling three big ties across the tracks near the Advance Rumely plant. The ties were knocked aside by the engine.

Rose Jovithik, aged 16, pretty and ambitious, of Ludington, tired of the humdrum life of her town and joined a vaudeville act that was playing at a local theater in that city. The young lady was traced to Benton Harbor where she was arrested and taken home.

Phoebe and Elsie Shawl, Flint tots, aged three years and eighteen months, respectively, were burned to death when fire, believed to have originated from an exploding oil stove, destroyed the small tar paper home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Shawl.

By the death of Mrs. Margaret Denninger, of near Monroe, widow of Charles Denninger, Monroe county loses one of its oldest residents. She was eighty years old and with her husband had lived sixty years in one of the picturesque log cabins of Monroe county.

In a movement to get an armory for the Muskegon Rifles of the M. N. G., the local Chamber of Commerce has decided to make an active campaign to raise $15,000 to meet $30,000 to be furnished by the state for a combined armory and convention hall building.

The state commission authorized to make a survey of the existing system of relief for the poor in Michigan organized in the office of the state board of charities and corrections by electing Benjamin P. Merrick of Grand Rapids chairman and Marl T. Murray, of the board of charities and corrections, secretary.

Governor Carlson of Colorado, it is reported, has pardoned Sherman W. Morris, alias Frank Shercliff, who was serving a 25-year sentence in that state for murdering John Walsh, a Leadville saloonkeeper in 1893. He is wanted at Lansing for confessed robberies, but Carlson refuses to turn him over to the Michigan authorities.

A recruiting station is opened at Ann Arbor.

John Kellar, aged 62, life long resident of Lenox township, Macomb county, is dead.

The annual grange fair for southern Michigan and northern Ohio will be held at Camden September 19-22.

Donald, child of Edward Salle, Ionia county farmer, is dead as the result of a fall from a hay loft while gathering eggs.

After long illness Mrs. John Malmgren, a resident of Manistee for thirty years, is dead at the age of sixty-six years.

Harry Spicer, forty years of age, of Muskegon, charged with a statutory offense with his 16-year-old daughter, has disappeared.

Two 14-year-old boys were arrested and put in jail at Pleasant Lake charged with the burglary of more than 50 cottages at that resort.

Edith, infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. Elmer Satterlie, of Ivan Rest, was badly burned over the left half of the body as a result of playing with fire.

In a Ludington fire Almond Lequire, one of the tenants, saved his wife and three small children when the roof and upper portions of the building burned.

Emil Arnold, living at Ann Arbor, has been appointed a member of the state board of examiners in optometry to succeed the late Nelson K. Standard, of Detroit.

Reading has joined in the "Five Million club," which is being formed by the Prohibition forces. The anti-saloonists hope to enroll 359,000 persons in Michigan.

Gen. R. J. Bates, Sault Ste. Marie, has been authorized by the Canadian government to raise an American legion on the Canadian border from Toronto to Winnipeg.

Mrs. Milo Bruce, of Berkey, O., died at the Bixby hospital at Adrian from injuries received at the New York Central station when she was struck by an express truck.

Mrs. Catherine Hatch, 82 in January last and a resident of Hillsdale county for many years, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lorenzo Young, one mile south of Osseo.

Traverse City has taken the lead among the smaller cities of the state in the appointment of a fulltime health officer. Dr. A. G. Hollister has been appointed at a salary of $1,800.

John Hill, four terms sergeant-at-arms of the state senate, part of the time under Governor Pingree, and a veteran of the civil war, died at his home in Mundy township, Genesee county.

Claude W. Chappell, former city manager of Jackson, has been engaged as city manager by Eaton Rapids, to succeed I. R. Ellison, who went to Grand Haven to become city manager.

A. J. Winslow, wealthy Kalamazoo real estate man who has been ill for some time, either jumped or fell out of a window at Borgess hospital and was seriously injured. No one saw the accident.

Mrs. Clarissa Taylor, of near Coldwater, one of Branch county's oldest residents, is dead, aged ninety-two, at the home of her son, Edison Taylor. She had lived in Branch county since 1853.

C. C. Cox, county surveyor of Hillsdale county, headed a surveying party which went to Litchfield to start work for Litchfield village and township. All of the main roads running through the village are to be improved.

The maple sugar harvest, about Eaton Rapids, which at the opening of the season promised to be one of the most profitable in a number of years, is now pretty nearly closed. It has proven to be far short of expectations.

Sheriff Mann of Barry county has arrested Al Yerden, of Grand Rapids, who escaped from custody last year. Yerden sold electrical fixtures at Hastings and left town without paying a board bill at the Parker house.

Relatives of the aged couple from Hillsdale and Reading gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Owen O'Hanlon, recently, to help celebrate the ninety-sixth birthday anniversary of Mrs. O'Hanlon's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Orr.

Alderman Lee H. Brown, of Lansing has quit the wets. He was one of the wet managers in the recent local option campaign in Ingham county, a former brewery owner. He says he will support state-wide prohibition this year.

Mrs. Wm. Melr, aged 94, oldest resident of Saginaw county, died from injuries received from falling down stairs. She was born in Berlin, Germany, coming to this country when forty-three years of age. She lived in Ogemaw county thirty-seven years.

William Ward, aged 94 years, the oldest pioneer resident of Eaton Rapids township and the last of the old stock of pioneer settlers on the Montgomery plains, is dead at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ben Sayles, on the old Ward homestead, two miles east of Eaton Rapids.

Miss Gertrude Patterson, of Ann Arbor, the daughter of Professor and Mrs. G. W. Patterson, of the University of Michigan, will be married April 26 to Mr. Carroll Haff, of Kansas City, Mo., it has just been announced. Mr. Haff was graduated from the university in 1914.

I. L. Stone, Battle Creek philanthropist, has made it easier for the local Young Women's Christian association to erect its new building, for which he had previously donated $50,000, by offering to pay $5,000 additional for the purchase of the Hickman property, one of the three parcels composing the site for the new structure.

THE

Maple City Grocery

COMPANY

A. W. SHOWERMAN

MANAGER

Saturday and Monday

25 cent size Golden Rod Washing Powder.....	18c
25 " " Gold Dust " " .....	20c
5 " " Snow Boy " " .....	4c
5 " " Light House " " .....	4c
5 " " White Flyer Soap.....	4c
5 " " Light House Soap.....	4c
1 quart Jar Olives.....	24c
2 pound Peanut Butter.....	24c
3 cans Red Kidney Beans.....	24c
3 cans Sauerkraut.....	24c
3 cans Pumpkin.....	24c
3 cans Peas.....	24c
3 cans Pink Salmon.....	24c

Maple City Grocery

COMPANY

The KITCHEN GUPBOARD

WINTER TASTIES.

FRUIT PANCAKES.—Materials: One cupful of cooked fruit—peaches, apricots, apples; one egg, flavoring to suit fruit, one cupful of flour, one teaspoonful of baking powder, one cupful of fruit juice or water, sugar to taste, butter or marmalade, lemon rind.

Directions: Pass the fruit through a sieve, add the egg, flavoring, flour, baking powder and fruit juice or water, also sugar to taste. Cook as pancakes. Spread with butter or with marmalade. Roll up, sift sugar and lemon rind over and serve hot.

Walnut Custard Pie.—Materials: Two eggs, a scant half cupful of sugar, salt, two cupfuls of hot milk, one-half teaspoonful of vanilla, one-half cupful finely ground English walnuts or pecans and almonds.

Directions: Beat the eggs, add the sugar and salt, pour on the hot milk, strain and add the vanilla and nuts. The nuts will rise to the top and form a tender crust to the custard. Bake in one crust.

Baked Clams, Hunter Style.—Materials: One dozen medium sized clams, finely chopped shallots, mushrooms and bacon, a little paprika, melted butter, parsley.

Directions: Open the clams, leave them on the half shell; besprinkle with finely chopped shallots, mushrooms and bacon; season with paprika pepper and cover the surface with breadcrumbs. Besprinkle with melted butter, place on a baking pan in a hot oven and cook about ten minutes and color nicely. When done arrange them on a folded napkin and garnish with parsley.

Baked Eggs With Cheese.—Materials: Four eggs, a tablespoonful cheese, cream sauce, hot water, seasoning.

Directions: Make a cream sauce, season and pour half into a baking dish. Break in the eggs, stir the cheese into remaining sauce. Pour over the top and bake, standing the dish in another containing hot water. Bake twelve minutes. Individual dishes are nice.

Anna Thompson

A Strategic Move.

Mrs. 'Close—I'm writing to ask the Browns to meet the Joneses here at dinner and to the Joneses to meet the Browns. We owe them both, you know. Close—But I've heard that they've just quarreled and don't speak. Mrs. 'Close—I know. They'll refuse, and we won't have to give a dinner party at all.—Boston Transcript.

A prettier home makes a happier woman; does your home satisfy you now?

Let me suggest how to decorate it prettily for little money—see my latest—1916 American Wall Papers.

F. R. HESS

Phone 153

Paw Paw

Why

not give your boy and girl an opportunity to make their home study easy and effective? Give them the same chances to win promotion and success as the lad having the advantage of

WEBSTER'S NEW INTERNATIONAL

Dictionary in his home. This new creation answers with final authority all kinds of puzzling questions in history, geography, biography, spelling, pronunciation, sports, arts, and sciences.

400,000 Vocabulary Terms. 2700 Pages. Over 6000 Illustrations. Colored Plates. The only dictionary with the Divided Page. The type matter is equivalent to that of a 15-volume encyclopedia. More Scholarly, Accurate, Convenient, and Authoritative than any other English Dictionary.

REGULAR AND INDIA-PAPER EDITIONS.

WRITE for specimen pages, illustrations, etc.

FREE, a set of Pocket Maps if you name this paper.

G. & C. MERRIAM CO.,

SPRINGFIELD, MASS.